1967 TOPPER

Hillwood High School

Nashville, Tennessee

Volume 6

Nineteen hundred and sixty-seven was a year unique in itself. The story of Hillwood High School added another long chapter, and one that will not be fully written for many years, for the story is a story of people and what they did and learned.

The band learned to play old songs in new ways. Western Kentucky lent us their enthusiastic fight song. The football team floundered about in search of the victory it so well deserved. The boys fought valiantly, and not without reward, on the basketball court, while the girls moved on relentlessly toward victory and possible championship. The student body reached an unprecedented enrollment, necessitating the erection and use of portable classrooms. The faculty also increased in number, although marriage hastened the retirement of one and gladdened the hearts of all.

But 1967 was not unique because of events that will dim in our memories and require pictures to recall them. It was the year to be remembered for what it taught the characters of the story. It taught them that people were real and to be valued on their own merits. It taught them that victory and defeat were both transient causes, here today but gone tomorrow. 1967 taught the characters in its story, above all, to be proud of themselves and of each other. It is the vision of their standing proud in the wake of the past and on the brink of the future that will remain indelibly in our memories.

Once or twice in a lifetime there comes along a teacher who commands the respect, admiration, and love of his students. Even less often comes along the teacher who so affects his students naturally and with no conscious effort to do so. The TOPPER Staff and the Hillwood Student Body, in recognition of such a unique individual, with pleasure and gratitude dedicate the 1967 TOPPER to Miss Lucile Mason.

Miss Mason began at Hillwood as an eighth grade core teacher. Since then she has taught seventh and eighth grade arithmetic, as well as first and second year algebra. Through the years she has encouraged her students to do well both in the classroom and in regional and statewide competition, and the great majority of Hillwood's success in such contests is directly attributable to her encouragement and assistance. The Student Council not only had its beginning, but also has grown in influence and activity, under Miss Mason's unselfish and indefatigable guidance.

What will really stay with us, however, is not an itemized tabulation of her inestimable contributions to us all, but rather a keen sense of the spirit she generates. Somehow we will all try harder, search longer, and stand prouder for having lived and worked with Miss Mason.

English Department

The English Department is the only one in which each Hillwood student is enrolled, and its programs are as varied as the student body it serves. Courses offered include literature, spelling, grammar, communicative skills, reading improvement, and speech. This year the English Department conducted two special classes—one an Advanced Placement course for college-bound seniors, and the other an experimental team-teaching group. Miss Henegartaught the former, and Mrs. Arfken, Mr. Wakefield, and Mrs. Thigpen led the latter. Creative writing and essay contests entered by Hillwood students proved the overall strength of our English program.

The Mathematics Department also serves the great majority of Hillwood students, and course offerings range from business arithmetic to algebra, from geometry to refresher arithmetic, and from modern math to trigonometry. Each year the Math Department selects representatives from algebra, geometry, and advanced senior math to compete in local, regional, and statewide competition. The overall strength of the department is attested to each year by the great number of contest winners from our school. This year for the first time students enrolled in high school mathematics also had the opportunity to compete in a nationwide examination designed to provide for the teacher and the student a criterion for comparing the standard of his work with that throughout the country.

The most popular elective subjects at Hillwood are the social studies. This fact is attributable to the variety of course offerings, all of which are vibrant and contemporary in nature. Eurasian and American histories are taught in the seventh and eighth grades, and civics, world history, American history, government, economics, sociology, and psychology are offered to high school students. Emphasis is placed upon the relationships existing between the men and movements of history and their contemporary counterparts. The analytical study of current events is basic to all social studies courses.

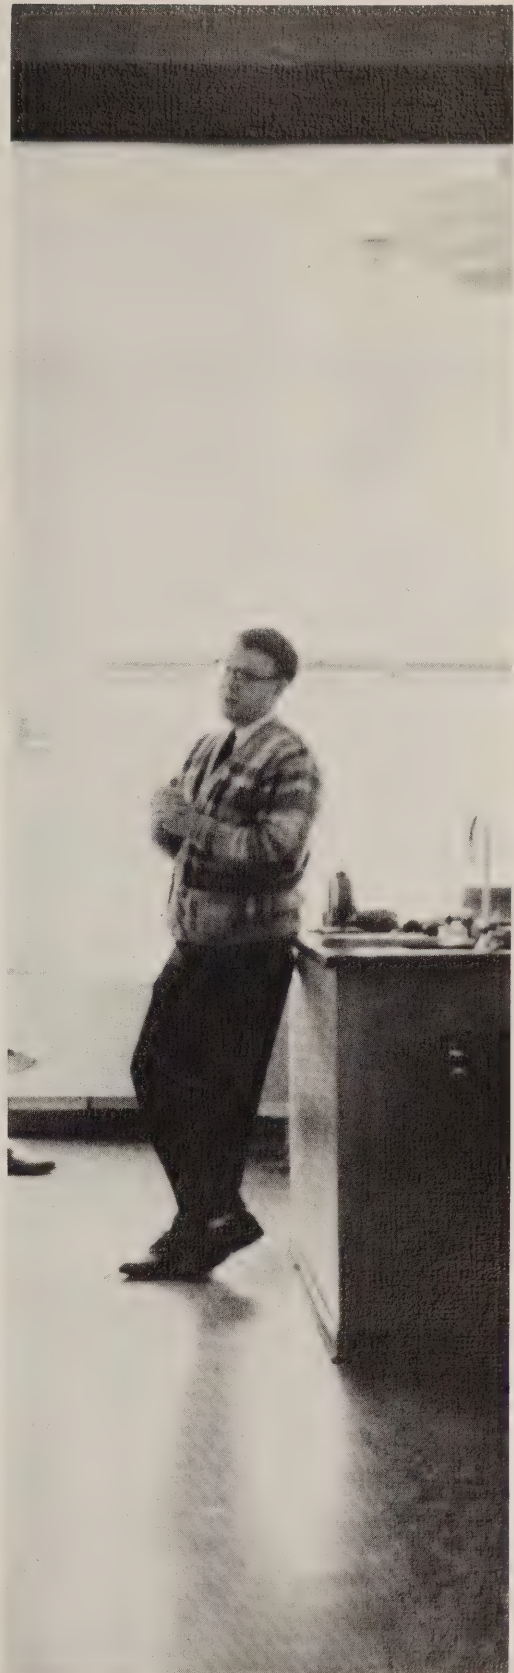

Science Department

The Science Department is one of the most progressive at Hillwood. The school is quite proud of its six modernly equipped laboratories—two each for general science, biology, and chemistry. Courses available to the student include seventh and eighth grade basic science, general science, biology, chemistry, physics, and physical science. Each student participating in a laboratory science was required to submit a project based upon independent research, many of which were subsequently entered in local and regional science fairs.

Foreign Language Department

With such terrific emphasis placed upon travel and communication in today's world, the study of foreign languages is becoming increasingly important. The Foreign Language Department at Hillwood offers to high school students the opportunity to pursue Latin, French, and Spanish for four years each. French and Spanish are also offered to eighth grade students on a limited basis. The Foreign Language Department encourages the students participating in its programs to further their cultural exploration by extending the classroom experience to club activities. The Junior Classical League, Liaison Francaise, and El Circulo Espanol help develop an overall sensitivity to a language and to the people who speak it.

The Fine Arts Department offers those subjects which tend to develop the natural talents and abilities of creative individuals and to foster a critical sensitivity in those less gifted students. Art and vocal and instrumental music are available to every student, as are the services of our spacious and well-stocked library. The participants in each subject area presented their accomplishments to the student body and to the community at least one time during the year.

Practical Arts Department

The Practical Arts Department at Hillwood recognizes the need for training students in trades and professions so that they might demand better jobs and higher wages after graduation. The department also seeks to acquaint students whose plan it is to pursue their education further with practical knowledge which will benefit them both in private and in business life. Industrial arts and home economics are offered to students from the eighth grade through high school. Marketing, typing, and bookkeeping are available only to juniors and seniors. The marketing program, new at Hillwood this year, is a unique consolidation of classroom and working experience, with emphasis placed upon learning by doing.

Varsity Band

The Hillwood Varsity Band was the best we have had as a result of longer hours of drill and practice. Their bright green uniforms, new white leggings, and spirited rendition of the fight song have become familiar to all the Hillwood community. Largely responsible for the renaissance of enthusiasm and the achievements was the director, Mr. Long.

Go Toppers, down the field
And bring us victory today.
Go Big Green, move that ball
Really fight and score

Go, Go, Go.

Go Hillwood green and white,
We're right behind you all the way
So come on and go, Big Green,
Move the ball, victory for Hillwood High Fight!

Hillwood Chorus

Daily practice and hours of hard work made the Hillwood Chorus an organization of which the school may be proud. Under the direction of Mr. McDonald, the chorus performed on many occasions. The main project of the year was the production of the musical Flower Drum Song, which was presented in late spring. The officers of the chorus were as follows: Paul Goldsberry, President; Betsy Simpson, Vice President; Tempe Marsh, Secretary-Treasurer; Pat Mabry and Steve Smith, Librarians; Marilu White, Accompanist.

Girls from all grades belong to the Hillwood Girls' Chorus, which is directed by Mr. McDonald.

The chorus performed in the Christmas concert and other programs throughout the year.

A Cappella Choir

This year an A Cappella Choir was introduced to Hillwood. Many chorus members belonged to this group which is also directed by Mr. McDonald. The choir, composed of about thirty members was well received at the concert, the P.T.A. Tea, and other performances. Much practice had to go into these renditions for the A Cappella Choir sings without the assistance of accompaniment.

Eighth Grade Chorus

A new singing group was the Eighth Grade Choir. This group was formed for the students who took music in the seventh grade and were interested in continuing the study. They met daily to learn new songs and perfect the old ones under the direction of Mr. McDonald. Their work and practice was appreciated by all who heard them at the Christmas Concert.

Ancient Rome came to the halls of Hillwood via the Junior Classical League. Through planning and staging Roman Festivals or historical events such as the Cerealia, Saturnalia, Ides of March, and a Vergilian birthday, members learned more about classical lands and civilizations than classwork afforded. Sponsored by Mrs. Lopeman and Mrs. Simpson, the club elected as officers: Carolyn Cox, President; Bobby Becker, Vice President; Betsy Finger, Secretary; Jane Kendall, Treasurer.

El Circulo Espanol

El Circulo Espanol offered to Hillwood students an opportunity to increase their knowledge of Spanish customs and culture. This was accomplished by the use of outside speakers and exhibits. Officers were: Bob Arning, President; Charles Cohn, Vice President; Sally Street, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Yount and Miss Daniels, Sponsors.

Art Club

The Art Club offered to Hillwood students an opportunity to further pursue their interest in art. Members kept the display case attractive and provided eye-catching decorations for many of the school's major events. In addition several members in national contests brought honor to the school by winning awards. Sponsored by Miss Senter, the Art Club had as officers: Melinda McCabe, President; Bonnie Green, Vice President; David Lankford, Secretary-Treasurer.

Students interested in pursuing their studies in science beyond the classroom joined the Science Club. Sponsored by Mr. Shumaker, the club's main project was a Science Fair, which enabled all Hillwood students to compete in the field of science which most interested them. Films and speakers made up many of the Science Club meetings. The club's officers were Overton Lea, President; Dottie Dean, Vice-President; Betsy Simpson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to provide for students an opportunity to learn more about the teaching profession. This learning is accomplished through programs with speakers and in the spring actual teaching by members of the club. The sponsors were Miss Floyd and Mrs. Tant; the officers were Creighton Michael, President; Vicki Petty, Vice-President; Marilu White, Secretary; Jeanne Robin, Treasurer; Susan Cox, Parliamentarian; Betty Farrar, Historian.

Library Club

A field trip to the Baptist Book Store, a book fair, and book reviews were a few of the activities of the Library Club. Members devoted their free periods to assisting their sponsors, Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Burns, in maintaining an attractive, well-organized library. Duties of the club members included serving at the check-out, reserve, over-due, and periodical desks. The officers were Margaret Warder, President; Jeanne Robin, Vice-President; Sandra Grigsby, Secretary; Pam Satterfield, Treasurer.

Pep Club

The Pep Club contributed greatly to the school-wide emphasis on school spirit. A common sight in the afternoons was a hall full of members, dripping brushes in hand, kneeling over yards of paper painting signs for coming athletic events. Sponsored by Mr. Cullom, the club elected as officers: Lynn Meyer, President; Tina Kendall, Vice President; Karen Uchida and Kris Ketcham, Secretaries.

National Beta Club

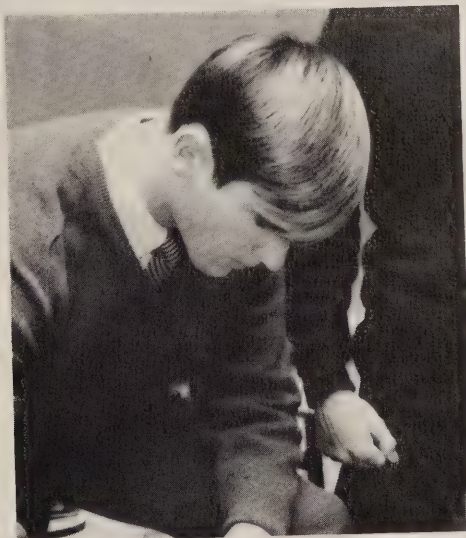

The Beta Club is an honorary service club composed of seniors who have "a worthy character, good mentality, creditable achievement and a commendable attitude." This year the Hillwood chapter had twenty-seven members who met together monthly to discuss club activities which would benefit the school and its students. With Bruce Bancroft as President, Carolyn Cox as Vice President, Tina Kendall as Secretary, and Craig McConnell as Treasurer, the Beta Club accomplished many goals. Between class periods a member sold supplies in the book store; as a project they put clips for absentee reports on every classroom door. An honorary scholarship for an outstanding senior, Beta Club certificates for meritorious students, a track and field record plaque, and Booster Buttons to encourage school enthusiasm were sponsored by the 1966-67 Betas.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, leadership, and citizenship—these are the qualities for which a student is selected to the National Honor Society. Members have displayed their leadership and citizenship in the school and community; along with this they have managed to maintain a 2.65 scholastic average. Hillwood's chapter sponsors a project each year. This year they united behind a plan to provide a tutoring program for students who had fallen down in their work or fallen behind in their work and needed help in their studies. The organization is sponsored by Mrs. Rawls and the club elected the following as officers: Janice Johnson, President; Tim Turner, Vice President; Carolyn Cox, Secretary; Jean Valentine, Treasurer.

HI-LITES Staff

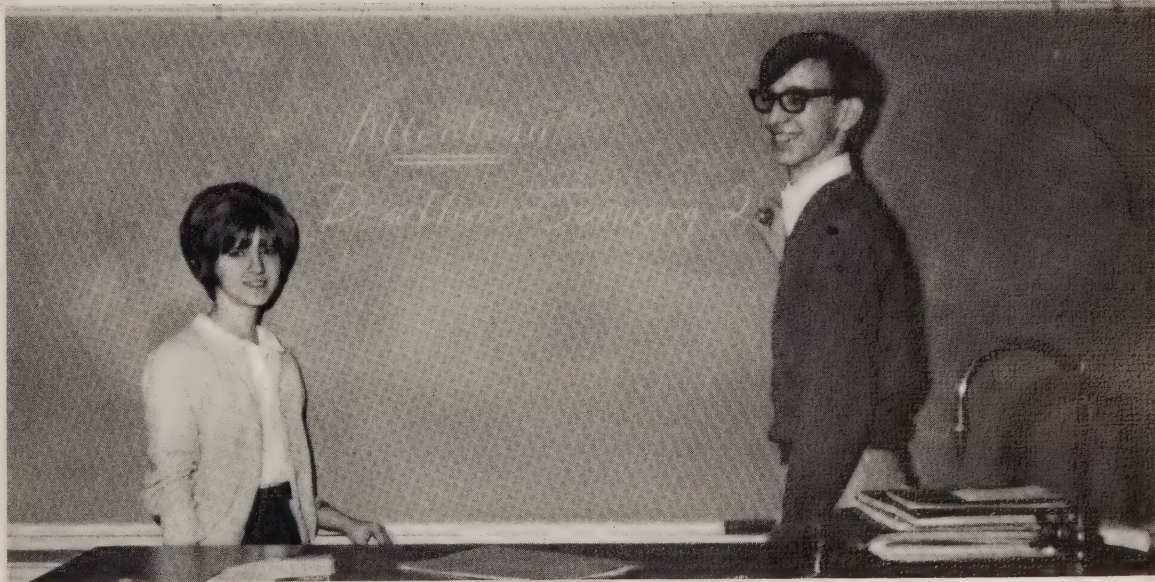

Clubs, sports, activities, news - the HI-LITES kept students up-to-date on everything happening around the school and community. Staff members gained not only a completely new vocabulary of newspaper terms and some experience which gave them insight into what a career in journalism entails. With the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Choppin, the twenty-seven students spent hours interviewing, finding new material, writing and rewriting copy, and meeting deadlines. The result was a newspaper enjoyed and appreciated by Hillwood students.

PERSPECTIVE, last year's innovation at Hillwood, is the literary magazine. Students contributed poetry, essays, narratives, short stories and art work. Hopefully the tradition of PERSPECTIVE will be continued throughout the coming years. Led by Mrs. Blevins and Mr. Wakefield and the editor, Jan Inman, the staff spent hours reading, sorting and compiling material.

TOPPER Staff

The majority of the fourteen students who signed up to work on the TOPPER staff had no idea of the work or the fun that goes into the making of a yearbook. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Simpson, Adviser, Mr. Tom Wilkins, Publisher's Representative, and Carolyn Cox, Editor, there were annuals to be sold and ordered, sports, clubs and individuals to be photographed, copy to be written, and everything to be proofread. All the confusion and problems became a part of the fun in piecing together the jigsaw which made a yearbook and in trying to make the 1967 TOPPER the best.

ATHLETICS

Varsity Football

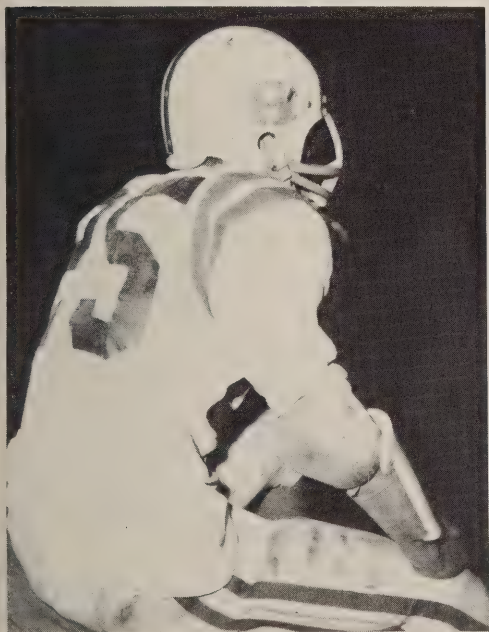

The Hillwood Varsity Football team was led by co-captains Bruce Bancroft and Burton Smith. It included nine seniors, thirteen juniors, nine sophomores, and one freshman. This team faced stiff competition in the AAA Western Division. Mr. McKinney, Mr. Jinnette, and Mr. Pryor gave able direction and guidance to the 1966 team as coaches. The players and coaches are credited for the fighting spirit they maintained throughout the unsuccessful season.

Cheerleaders play a vital part in the spirit and morale of a school. The cheers bring courage and hope to the team. Win or lose, the cheers are a source of encouragement to the pride in the school.

Positions of honor belong to the cheerleaders. When they cheer, they have a feeling of warmth in the yells because they love the school and the school spirit which they help generate. The cheerleaders may well be referred to as the "crutch" of all sports events.

The Topper Cheerleaders for 1966-67 were led by Kay Henry, Captain. The seniors were Carol Nixon, Linda Wilson and Beverly Murray; Juniors, Frenchie Cook and Dinka Tatum; Sophomores, Pam Smith, Sally Thomas and Gloria Hayes.

Freshman Football

Under the direction of Coaches Zapp and Dickerson, Hillwood's Freshmen made a creditable record. After losses to McMurray and Hillsboro, the team rallied with a 13-7 win over Overton. Franklin won a decisive victory over the young Toppers; then they bounced back with a 14-7 win over East. Through this 2-3 won-lost record the boys gained knowledge and experience which will aid them in the coming year as members of varsity teams.

Junior High Football

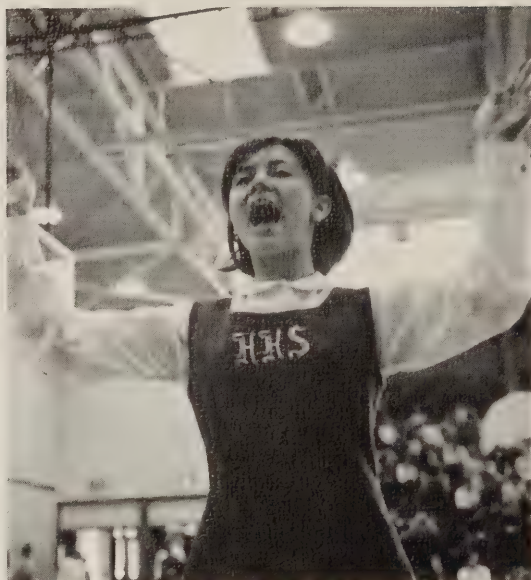

Assisted by Mr. Zapp, Mr. Bandy organized and coached the Seventh and Eighth Grade football team. These boys worked to learn the fundamentals of team play and exhibited promise of good years ahead on the varsity teams. Such experience pays dividends.

The Freshman Cheerleaders faithfully supported the successful freshman teams this year. Leading the cheers were Captain Nancy Carney, Co-captain Melinda Banks, Arlette Strate, Teresa Zupa, Nancy Nixon, Pam Martin, Janice Parker, Brenda Murray, and Suzanne Renfroe.

Varsity Basketball

Beverly Murray

Hillwood's Varsity Girls' Team had an excellent record this year. Ranked tenth in pre-season ratings, the girls defeated fourth-ranked Two Rivers in their first game. The inspired team then scored an impressive victory over first-ranked Hillsboro. Through several difficult games, the girls continued to come out on top, but twice failed to defeat Overton. They fell to Joelton in their first encounter but defeated them in the next game. Only three seniors, Janice Johnson, Carolyn Weismueller and Captain Peggy Curtis, will be missing from next year's lineup. Coached by Mrs. Ladd, the girls had a successful record and a winning season. All-city honors from the NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN were awarded Joyce Langhans, a freshman guard.

Carole Nixon

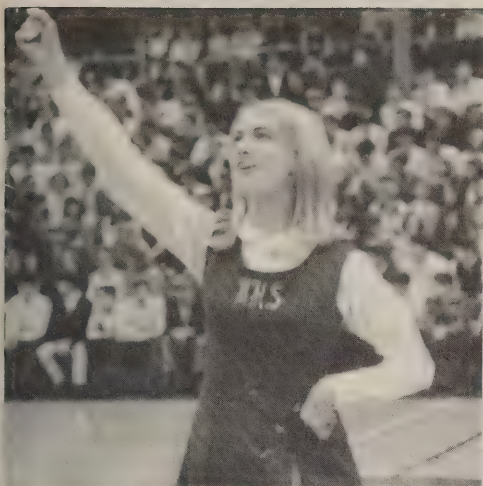

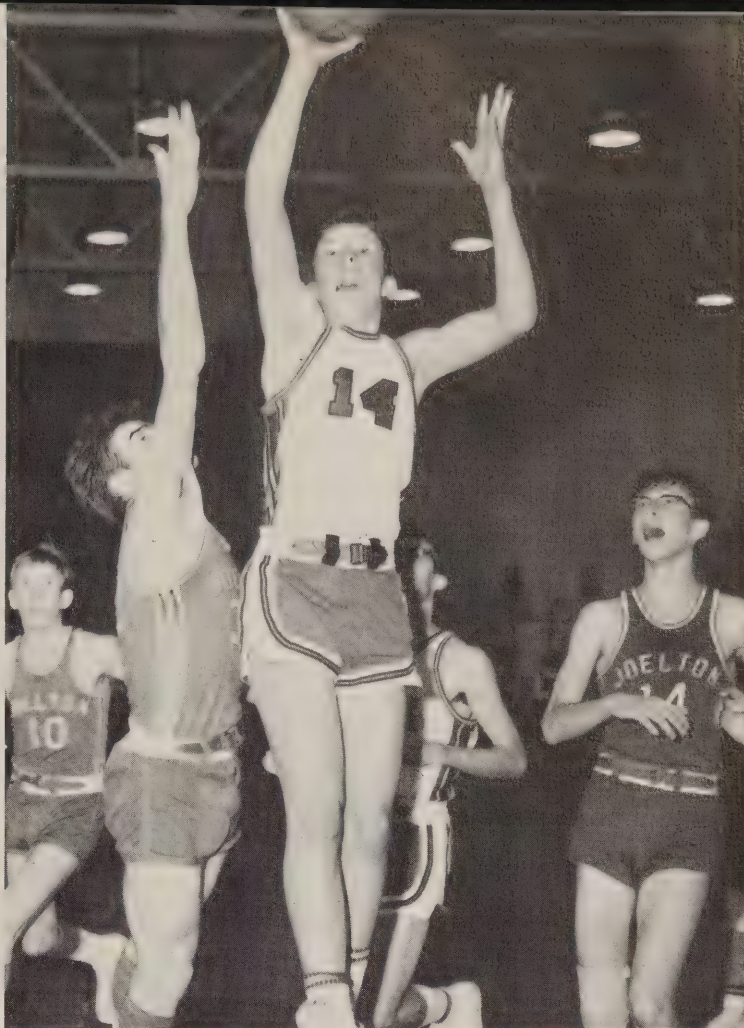

Pam Smith

The Varsity Basketball Team was coached by Mr. Jinnette and Mr. Zapp, and it was composed of five juniors and five sophomores. The boys performed to the best of their ability against seasoned opposition. Captain Neil Anderson led the determined team to victory over Joelton, but defeat was theirs in other games. If experience is the key, the basketball team of next year should have a better record.

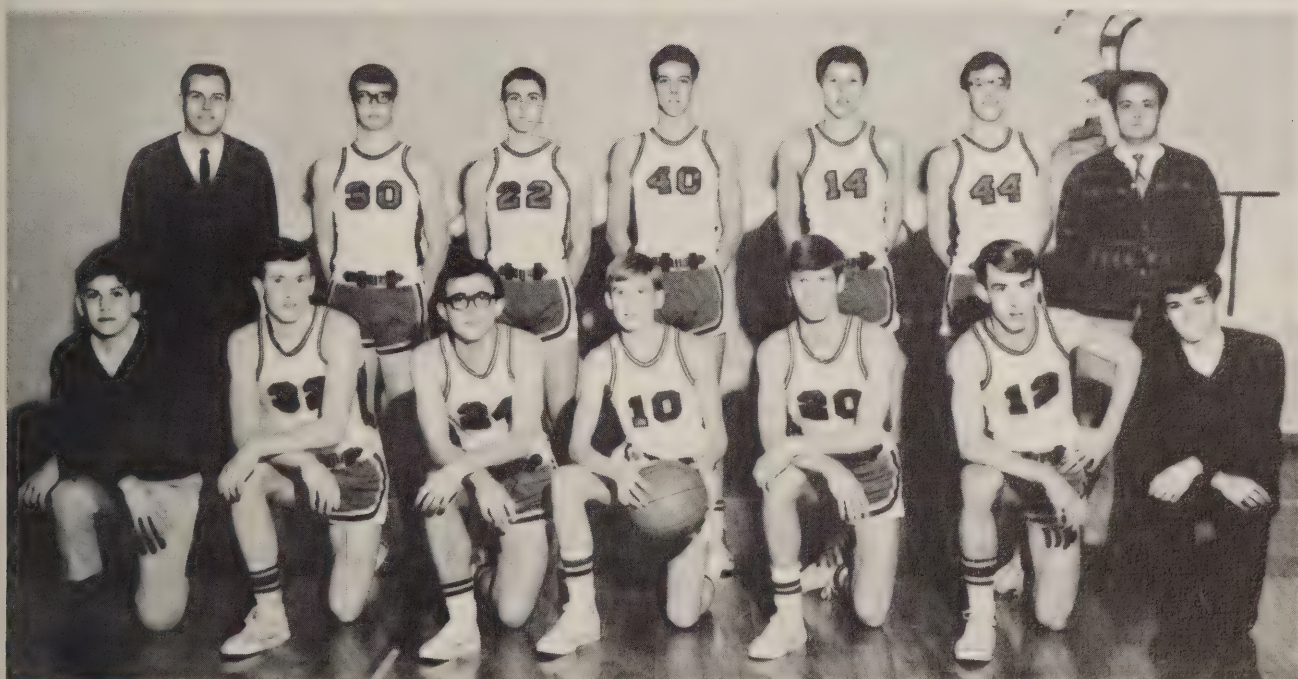

Linda Wilson

Row one: Manager Robert Lipman, Neil Anderson, Kenny Miller, Barry Bryant, Lee Moss, Dave Lankford, Manager Bill Merrick. Row two: Coach Jinnette, Daryl Williams, Harley Erb, Ricky Lankford, Pat Moore, Steve Punch, Coach Zapp.

Freshman Basketball

Dinka Tatum

The pride of Hillwood was the freshman basketball teams. The girls' team was composed of sixteen seventh, eighth and ninth graders. Coached by Mr. Pryor, the girls posted victories in their first two clashes against Donelson and Central and lost to Hillsboro. They snapped back to win the next eight games, winning over Glenclyff, Washington, Litton, Overton and Lipscomb. The season's record was one of which we are proud, and their skill should prove helpful as they move on to join varsity teams.

The Freshman Boys' Team had no less impressive victory than the Freshman Girls. The dynamic team began the season with wins over Donelson and Central, and their teams did not fail. They posted six more victories by defeating Hillsboro, Glencliff, McMurray, Lipscomb, Litton and Overton. Their ninth opponent was the mighty Washington Freshman Team, which had a three year winning streak. The Toppers fell, but were back in form for their next game in which they rolled over Bellevue. Coached by Mr. Bandy, the fourteen man team had one of the finest records ever accumulated by a Hillwood basketball team.

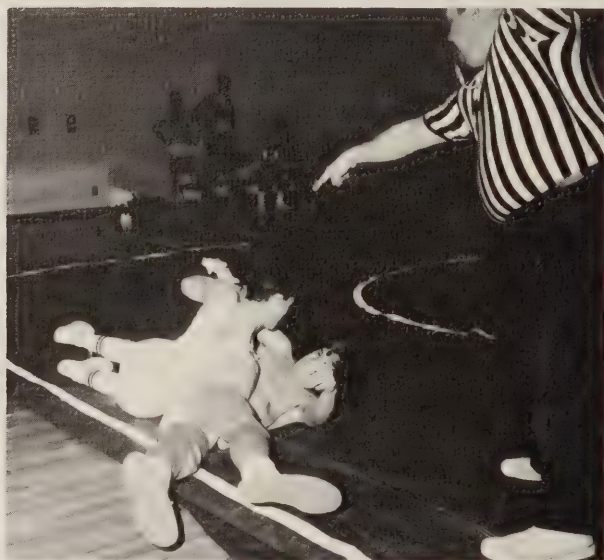

Row one: Charlie Cox, Bill Lashlee, Joey Runion, Jeff Boerger, Johnny McCabe, Keller Chapman. Row two: Phillip Carr, manager; Lynn Tramel, manager; Chip

Wrestling

Under the capable direction of Mr. Gaines, the boys organized a new athletic team this year. The Wrestling Team was hampered by lack of experience as they faced opponents such as Two Rivers and Madison, who are seasoned participants. Jim Slater served as captain of the group. Lee Gamble and Steve Bishop won four matches; Bruce Bancroft, three; Larry Pass, Joe Gibbs, L. T. Southall, two; Bruce Barham, Ron Anglin and Steve Wells, one each.

ACTIVITIES

Hall of Fame

In recognition of the lasting contributions made through the years by graduating seniors, The TOPPER Staff has instituted a Hall of Fame. A faculty committee and the administration, in making the selections, wish to perpetuate these contributions and to encourage those who follow to use their talents and to be of service. Those seniors so honored have been selected on the basis of commendable attitude, active participation, responsible citizenship, and unselfish service to the school and its community.

Spirit Activities

Spirit at Hillwood this year began at a normal pace, but even before the first week was over, it quickly gained the momentum which carried it through the year on a high level of enthusiastic support and student participation. Partial credit for such spirited activity and loyal devotion, while due in large measure to the spontaneous reaction of the student body itself, must be attributed to the combined efforts and cooperation of the administration, the cheerleaders, the athletic teams and the student council.

In an all-out endeavor to engender enthusiasm for the Topper's first season in the new AAA Western Division, the Men's Club sponsored a highly successful and well-received Watermelon Cut, featuring the introduction of varsity and freshman football players, members of the cheerleading squad, and officers of the Men's Club. In a dramatically climactic scene, the mortgage on the stadium was burned by the original signatories amid a spectacular shower of fireworks, thus drawing to a close seven years of tireless money-raising.

The annual powder puff football game, sponsored this year by the junior class, pitted the pigskin greats of both the junior and senior classes—girl pigskin greats, that is. The greatest thrills and scoring threats of the game were presented by the passing duo of Barbee Bancroft and Kay Henry, who scored on a long yardage pass, only to be called back for an off-sides penalty. Neither class outlasted the other, however, and the game ended in the spirited chaos of a 0-0 tie.

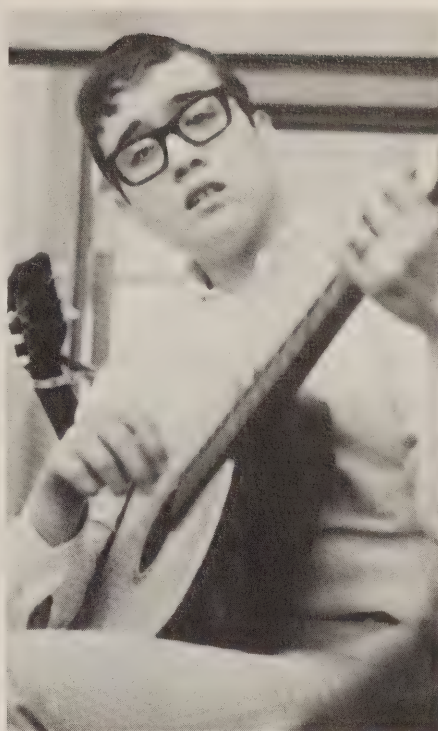

The band began each pep rally with a rousing version of the new Hillwood fight song. Traditional and novel cheers, as well as amusing and entertaining skits featuring Suzanne Collier and Wade Foriest, highlighted the action. The Alma Mater, skillfully directed by Mr. Long and Myron Schmidt, concluded each spirit meeting.

Heart Week

This year under the direction of Miss Mason and Mrs. Hinton, the Student Council sponsored Heart Week. This idea was initiated to bring about greater school spirit in the students. The first day was designated as

"Hello Day." Students and faculty members wore heart-shaped name tags. The next day was entitled "Extra-Nice Day." Valentines ordered by the boys Monday were delivered to the girls during the classes.

On Wednesday, everyone participated in "Appreciation Day." The students taught the classes as teachers put on an assembly. "Reverse Day" was held on Thursday. This time the boys received singing Valentines from the girls. Another feature of this day was the girls waiting on the boys, by carrying books, lunch trays, and everything else. The final day was known as "Topper Day." Everyone was to be quiet in the halls and lunchroom, and then "raise the roof" at the pep rally.

Although there was some noise in the halls, the day certainly served its purpose as the cheerleaders led the student body in a very enthusiastic pep rally that afternoon.

The week was formally ended at the combo following the basketball game Friday night. However, due to the overwhelming support of the teachers and students, it is hoped that Heart Week will become a part of Hillwood's tradition.

Assemblies

Under the direction of Lynne Myer, Hillwood's assemblies were better than ever. Throughout the year, we had many different kinds of performances, including speakers, concerts, and a one-act play put on by the Forensic Department.

The annual Christmas Assembly was highlighted by the singing of Christmas carols by the choir. The presentation of the baskets for needy families was held also. This worthwhile project, sponsored every year by the Student Council, helps underprivileged families enjoy a Merry Christmas.

Colonel Huffman spoke to the Senior High concerning the patriotism of young Americans during the Veterans Day assembly. Later in the year, a demonstration was put on for the boys by Fisher Body Company. Many of the innovations in car designing were shown, including a demonstration of flexible glass.

On Wednesday of Heart Week, an assembly was given to demonstrate the talents of various faculty members. The acts included Mrs. Reed playing the piano; Mrs. Crowell accompanying Miss Daniel, who sang two selections; and two groups of the men teachers. Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Zapp, Mr. Durham, Mr. Pryor, and Mr. Shumaker dedicated a song to the Senior Class. Another group composed of Mr. McDonald, Mr. Jinnette, Mr. McKinney, and Mr. Pryor formed a combo. However, the women teachers were not to be outdone. Mrs. Blevins, Mrs. Daves, Mrs. Arfken, and Mrs. Thigpen joined together in an original song to the cafeteria, ridiculing the food.

This assembly was highlighted by the Hillwood Jazz

Band's rendition of the fight song, Go Toppers! Although they had only practiced together a few months, this group gave an excellent performance to the student body.

The Forensic Club also demonstrated their talents to the student body in a one-act play entitled, "The Refuge," by Paul McCoy. This play made its way to the finals of the Metro One Act Play Contest before losing. The cast of the play included Lynne Meyer, Tempe Marsh, Claire Frierson, Myron Schmidt, and Jeff Wray.

National Honor Society Installation

On March 14, the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony in a senior high assembly. The new members were selected on the basis of scholarship and leadership.

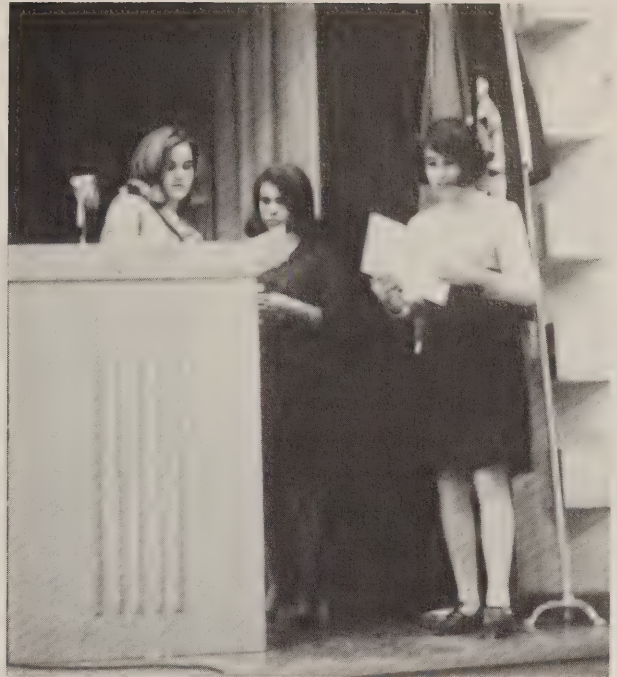

A new feature was added this year, as ribbons were presented to thirty-six freshmen and sophomores with high grade point averages. The purpose of this award is both to recognize their accomplishments and to encourage underclassmen to strive toward superior grades.

In his final address to the student body, Mr. Hicks challenged the students to work up to their full capabilities, never wasting or abusing their talents. He used the examples of Frog Williams and Ronnie Medlin, both former Hillwood students who were motivated to excel in their chosen fields.

Newly-selected members of the National Honor Society:
Frances Marianne Barge
Martin Norman Buchman
Ellen Barrie Corens wet
Marion Sue Cox
Richard Gordon Heimberg
Terri Lynn Hiers
Barbara Edwards Paryarik

National Beta Club Induction

In their annual spring assembly, the Hillwood Chapter of the National Beta Club tapped thirty-one students for membership in this honorary service organization. These juniors, who were chosen on the basis of scholarship and leadership, represent the finest members of their class.

Craig McConnell, Beta Club treasurer, presented a track and field chart to Mr. Dickerson. It will serve as a permanent recognition for those who excelled in gymnastics.

Another innovation was the Beta Club Certificates which were awarded various students for excellence in a particular activity.

The Beta Club vice-president, Carolyn Cox, announced that a scholarship will be given at awards night to a non-Beta senior whose outstanding talents are to be developed more fully in college.

Beta Club Certificates

This year the Hillwood Beta Club awarded ten certificates to students who had excelled in some particular school activity. These range from scholarship to band to basketball. These awards were limited to neither Beta Club members nor to any particular grade. The Beta Club plans to make the awarding of these certificates an annual event.

Homecoming

It seemed as though everyone at Hillwood worked to make homecoming a memorable event this year. The art department made a display to show school spirit and to advertise the Fish Supper. The Men's Club sponsored a school spirit essay contest as well as the annual dinner. Later that night, the students cheered for the football team against the Franklin Rebels.

The highlight of the activities was the presentation of the homecoming queen and her court. The Queen, Linda Wilson was crowned by Captain Bruce Bancroft as the band played selections from "The Sound of Music." Following the game was the combo sponsored by the Student Council.

Although we did not win the game, the school spirit showed by the team made us all proud to be Toppers.

National Merit Scholarship Awards

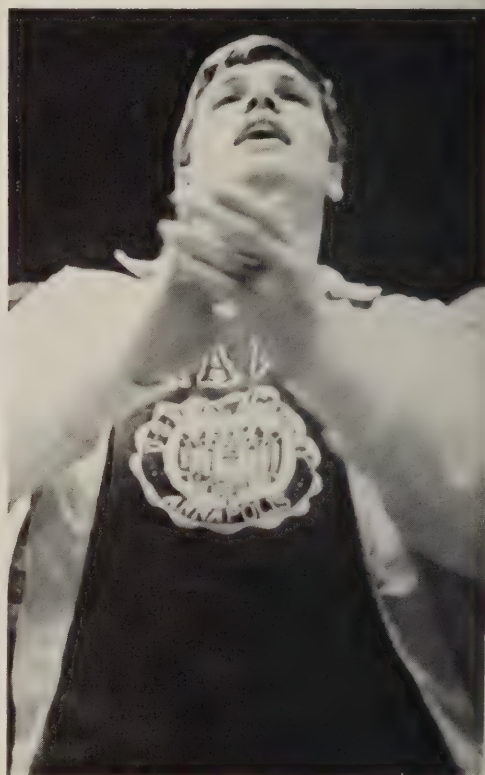

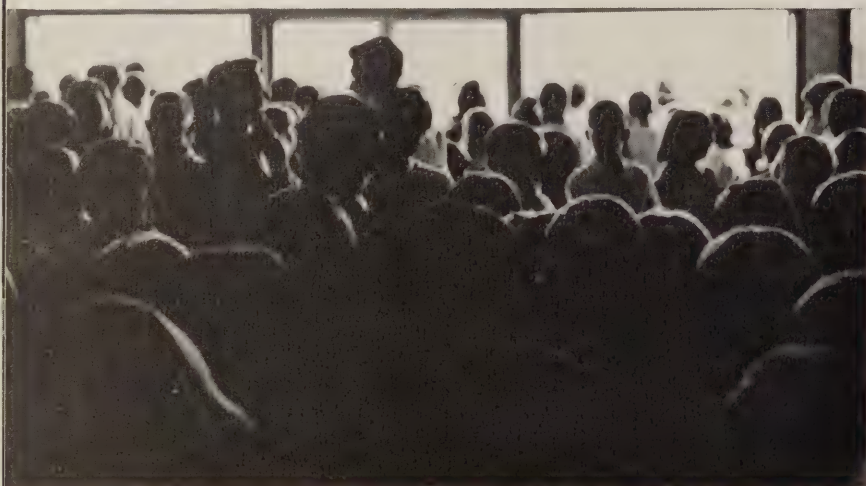

Each year over seven hundred thousand students take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Of these, approximately fifteen thousand are named finalists. This high honor was accorded two Hillwood seniors this year, Carolyn Cox and Melody Duggins. Another thirty-five to forty thousand receive Letters of Commendation. Hillwood students receiving this honor were Janice Johnson, Overton Lea, David King, and Jeff Wray.

Although Melody has attended Hillwood only two years, she has made many contributions to the school. This year she served as president of the Liaison Francaise, and as Organizations Editor of the TOPPER. After graduation, she will attend Furman University.

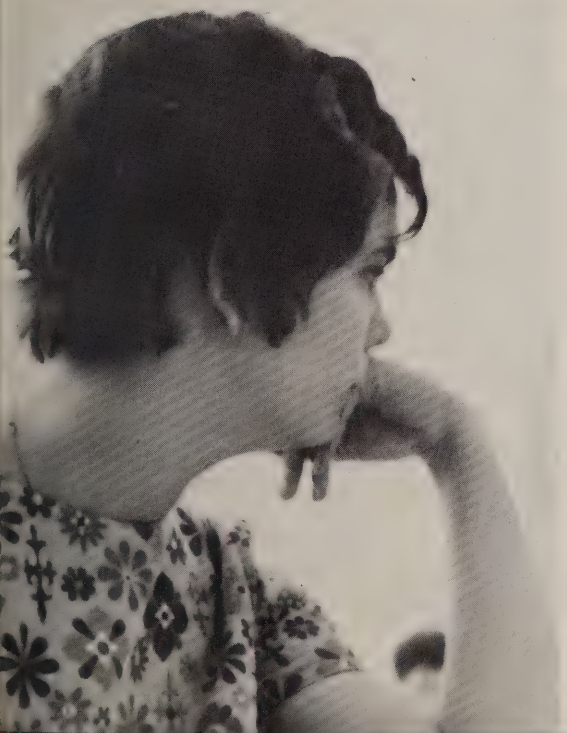

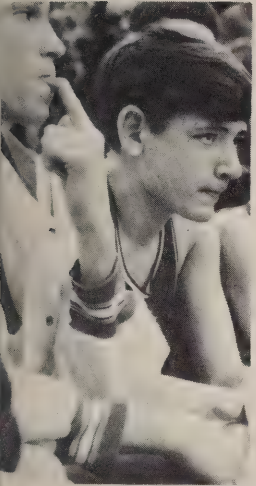

Carolyn has also participated in many activities during her six years at Hillwood. This year she was the Editor of the TOPPER, vice-president of the Beta Club, and president of the J.C.L. Agnes Scott College in Atlanta, Georgia, is Carolyn's college choice.

Although the basketball team took up a great deal of time, Janice served as president of the National Honor Society. Community activities are of special interest to Overton. As a junior, he was the president of the Young Republicans Club.

David has always been active in school events. He served as the Junior Class president and is a member of the Key Club. Forensics was Jeff's chief interest this year; he was the president of the Forensic Club. These students are to be highly commended for this achievement.
